

Merry

Christmas

Happy

New Year

From Ed and Ghislaine Miller

In Memoriam:
Carlos Costa Riehiro
Ghislaine's brother
Carlos died Aug. 22,
2015, in Rio de Janeiro

after a long battle with cancer. He was 76.

Carlos was an internationally distinguished biochemist and environmental scientist.

Top row: Son John and Dede with their sons, Chris and Matt. Chris is studying cello in England and Matt graduated from UT Knoxville in December.

Son Thomas and Cleusa with Cleusa's daughter Fernanda and grandson Mason. They live in Springfield, Va.

Middle row: Daughter Jacqui (Laurito) with sons Gabriel and Raphael. Gabriel is a sophomore and Raphael is a senior at West High School in Knoxville.

Son Richard, a professional guitarist, lives in New York City where he teaches at Columbia and is director of education at Afro-Latin Jazz Alliance. He is also musical director for a play at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.

Bottom row: Son Edgar and Angela with Lucas, Danny, Carolina and Sophia. They recently moved from Santiago, Chile, to Rome, Italy, where Danny, Carolina and Lucas attend Marymount School. Lucas is a cadet at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C.

Ed and Ghislaine, both retired, still live in their condo in Knoxville. They celebrated 57 years of marriage in October.

Christmas greetings from the Miller family

May the joy and peace of this Christmas season be with you throughout the coming years.
